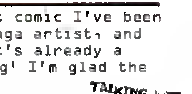
1 Pleased to meet you.

Hi! I'm Maekawa Ryou. Thanks to you, this is the first comic I've been able to do!! Wow! It's a miracle that I became a manga artist, and that I actually have a comic...v_v; sniff. But, it's already a chapter. What should I do? <-There's no use worrying! I'm glad the manga turned out well...



Since I'm writing a comic, I want to write lots of these bonus pages, so I might have 9 of them for a volume!! Heh, I was really thinking of 4 pages or so.

I think it'll turn into a page where I can express myself. ^_^
If you don't want to read it, go ahead and skip it. ^_^
Even if you don't read it, it'll just be me ranting about whatever.

-- Anyways, here I go with the self-introduction, -----------------------------------

Maekawa Ryou / From Fukui prefecture. Born December 21. Blood type unknown (hurry up and figure it out). 2 younger sisters. Born in the same year as a sibling. Hobbies / sleeping. I'm trying to put together a home page. My computer is inside my house, so I'm kind of an indoors person. I'm a manga artist. I use Windows and love Sony Vaio / Foods I like are rice and noodles. Music I listen to a lot are Chage & Aska. I like how they sing in a crazy, loud, nasal voice. TV personality I like is Puffy (she's a singer). I love V6's Okada who is called Johnny (note: V6 is a popular band that does a lot of opening/ending themes for TV dramas). What else, I'm about 153 cm tall. I wanted to grow another 5 cm. Since it's the 21st century, I thought I'd be a little less enthusiastic, but that's how I am today.

I'm writing really small, sorry.
